

FLAMETREE JEREMY JOHN CABERNET MALBEC 2018

Jeremy John Towner (JJT) was affectionately known by his nickname, 'Tuna'. A true gentleman of grand presence; not just because of his height at 6 foot 5 inches, but his larger than life character.

Ever popular with friends and peers, Jeremy attended Christ Church Grammar School and then completed a Bachelor of Science in Geology at Sydney University.

His passion and belief in "terra firma" inspired his vision to establish Flametree Wines in 2007. As affirmation of his faith and reward for his hard work, Flametree won the coveted Jimmy Watson Memorial Trophy in 2008 for its first ever red wine release.

Jeremy would have been very proud to see all that the brand has achieved, particularly the Family Tree wine club. We pay tribute to Jeremy with this limited edition wine.

NOTES: Blend: 80% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Malbec. The Cabernet gives the wine wonderful structure and power whilst the Malbec contributes flesh and generosity. Classic Cabernet aromas of cassis, blackcurrant and dark chocolate are fleshed out with the plum and cherry fruit flavours of the Malbec. Cellaring: up to 30 years. Alcohol: 14%. Limited stocks.
